Dear Russ:

I apologize for sending sooner. I have been on the road the past 3 weeks. It is honor to submit the name of the late Charles Agnello (class 1960) for the Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame category. Since graduation he was always the catalyst that kept in touch with of his former classmates. If you hadn't seen him for a few years and ran into him, it was like only yesterday you were together. He always kept you informed of what was happening to former classmates. He led The Save Fallon campaign in the early 70's when the school was picked to close. I remember meeting with him at the Bishops office, with his list of signatures of graduates of almost every class that graduated from Fallon. He was the lead person who always spearheaded the planning and success of all the past reunions. In my opinion he was truly the epitome of the Fallon graduate. He never forgot his friends, classmates no matter what or where you fit in during the days we attended Fallon. Chuck was extremely supportive and proud of everyone's accomplishments. He always would say another Fallon boy did well, no matter what Father Morrissey may have thought. I know that what his passing we all lost a good friend.
