

Good morning Mr. Longo –

With regard to my uncle Vince, I wrote up a quick bio, and his daughter Ann, who is CCed on this email, added to it. Please let us know if we can provide any more information! Thank you! -Stephanie

Vincent has been a Dunkin Donuts – Baskin Robbins Franchisee since 2003. He resides with his family in Tannersville, PA. He's originally from Buffalo, and went to Bishop Fallon until the school closed in 1975; he then went on to graduate from St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute. He studied at Canisius College thereafter, and has worked in the hotel & restaurant industry for decades.

He has been married to Ellen Sciandra since 1985, and is the proud father of Vincent (Jamie) Sciandra, Ann Sciandra and Sara Sciandra, and the grandfather of Madison. He is the son of Carmelo and Concetta Sciandra and brother of Russell Sciandras and the late Joseph A. Sciandra and Carmen Sciandra. Uncle to many beloved nieces and nephews.

Vince, in addition to being the President of the Holy Name Society, is an avid supporter of Sensational Fun, Inc., cancer charities, and other philanthropic endeavors. He is known for his spirited laugh, making his mother's famous red sauce & soup, and his carefree, jovial character.
