Hello Vince...

My name is Peter Bishop. I sit on the Bishop Fallon Alumni Board and I would like to welcome you back to Bishop Fallon.

Your response to our Facebook page was a great surprise and it's good to touch base with another alum.

We would appreciate a more complete contact list including street address, telephone number.

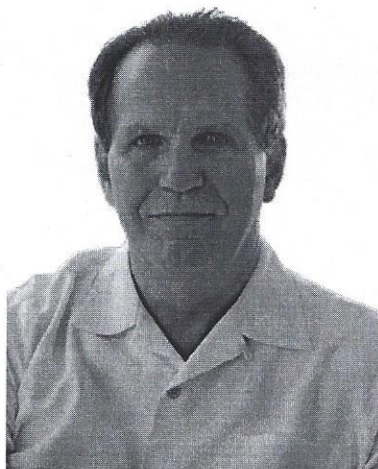

BTW I believe I went to Infant of Prague grammar school in Cheektowaga with your cousin Mary Ann.

Hope to hear fro you>

Vincent Ingrando Bio

Vice President Of Business Development

Vincent was born and raised on the West Side Area of Buffalo, New York. He graduated from Bishop Fallon in 1966 and made it to the All-Catholic Football Team in his senior year. Vincent attended North Western State University in Oklahoma, where he played football during his freshman year.

Vincent is an expert business strategist with extensive experience in organizational development and client acquisition management. His innovative thinking, market insights, and passion for the field led to 44 years of success. He has exhibited strong leadership skills while closing high-profile financial deals for Fortune 500 Companies. His greatest achievements include a 2+ year collaboration with Visa International, leading to a multi-million-dollar revenue.

As a business developer, Vincent showed an exemplary talent for recognizing profitable organizational opportunities and creating target-orientated plans to achieve those goals. He assisted companies in optimizing organizational operations and creating scalable solutions to acquire new clientele. Vincent is known for his meticulousness, effective communication skills, and persuasive negotiation tactics.

He cultivated meaningful client relationships to generate sustainable revenue via joint ventures and deals. His commitment to excellence resulted in several accolades, including the President Award for Outstanding Performance. In addition, Vincent worked for American Express for over 25 years.

After retirement, Vincent enjoys spending quality time with his family and cooking delicious gourmet Italian meals. Vincent is equally competitive outside of the corporate circles. You will find him perfecting his winning shot at a tennis court four times a week and hopes to participate in tournaments in the future.
